BOOK SYNOPSIS

Fallen Billow should be in college like most of her friends, but instead shes raising her brother and working as a housekeeper at a vintage local hotel. Its back-breaking work, but not nearly as challenging as fending off unwanted advances from the hotels owner. Thomas McHugh is fighting for our country, across the globe and decades before Fallen Billow was even born. So theres no way theyre soul mates. Theres no way he can be desperate to see her, hold her, kiss her. Except there is. Is it a dream when he inks his name on her skin? Is it a delusion when she puts her hands on his face and says she loves him? Nothing has ever felt more real. Fate has etched paths for Thomas and Fallen that even time cannot touch. A Purple Heart proclaims Thomas valor and bravery. And his death. But Fallen dares to dream of the impossible. She wants Thomas to stay. Just stay. A tribute to all who have served our country, this novel honors the impossible beauty of love and the endless power of hope. Come open your heart and celebrate the many facets of bravery with Fallen and Thomas.
